

Interested in History or Art?

The Divide Friends of the Arts and Historical Society (DFAHS) is having its annual membership drive. Become a part of this dynamic non-profit organization and help to support the arts and history on the Divide. The membership form is also available online at www.artonthedivide.com.

DFAHS, a 501(c) non-profit, and its sister organization, Art On the Divide Gallery, play an important role in the Divide community. DFAHS through its membership drive continues to fund art scholarships for graduating high school seniors from the Divide and has also written, illustrated and printed the walking guide for Georgetown

Guardian, by Dana Torres,
2016 Scholarship Recipient

Art On the Divide Gallery hosts workshops, artist receptions, and provides a place for visitors and the community to enjoy art. In addition, both DFAHS and AODC maintain the public historic rose garden, directly behind the gallery.

Divide Friends of the Arts and Historical Society looks forward to welcoming new members. Membership fee and any additional donation is tax deductible. DFAHS 501(c), Calif ID# C1653128 and Fed ID# 68-0208326
